

How to Reach the VIC

Public transport

By U-Bahn:

The VIC can be reached directly with the U-Bahn by taking line U1 (marked in red on maps of the transport network) towards Wien Leopoldau and alighting at Kaisermühlen-Vienna International Centre station (2 minutes walking distance to VIC Gate 1). Trains are running every 3-5 minutes during the day. Single tickets, multiple tickets for two, four or eight journeys or for one, three or eight days, and weekly tickets can be purchased from vending machines in all U-Bahn stations, at tobacco shops with the sign 'Tabak Trafik' or at the VIC newspaper stand located in the C building. Weekly tickets are valid from Monday to Sunday and can be used for unlimited travel on all modes of public transport (U-Bahn, bus, tram and local trains (S-Bahn)) within the city of Vienna.

Further information on public transport in Vienna (including timetables) can be obtained here.

Participants with disabilities can find information on accessibility of public transportation in Vienna here.

By train:

Vienna's main train station (Hauptbahnhof) has excellent and frequent train connections from many European destinations. Change here for U-Bahn line U1, direction Leopoldau (please see above). Trains are running every 3 to 5 minutes and the journey between Hauptbahnhof and Kaisermühlen-Vienna International Centre will take approximately 15 minutes.

Further information on travel by train (including timetables) can be found on the ÖBB website.

Participants with disabilities can find information on the accessibility of ÖBB services here.

By taxi

Should it not be possible using public transportation the VIC is also reachable by taxi. Since all meeting participants have to go through the registration formalities, those arriving by taxi should ask to be dropped off at Wagramer Strasse 5, Gate 1 of the VIC. For departures, a taxi may be requested at the United Nations Security and Safety Service (UNSSS), located at Gate 1. An additional fee is charged for taxis ordered by telephone. The customary tip for taxi drivers in Austria is 10% of the fare.

Please note that there may be an extra charge for luggage, which is not shown on the meter.

From Vienna Airport

By bus

The Vienna Airport Lines bus service operates at hourly intervals, from 05:10 to 20:10, every day. Buses depart from the VIC bus station, which is located on Wagramer Strasse, in front of Gate 1. The trip usually takes about 30 minutes and costs €8.

By train

An S-Bahn service departs from the airport and stops at Wien Praterstern approximately every 30 minutes. The trip usually takes about 25 minutes. After arriving at Wien Praterstern station, it is necessary to change to U-Bahn line U1 towards Leopoldau (further information is listed under 'Public transport' above) to reach the VIC. Alternatively, the City Airport Train (CAT) links the airport with the City Air Terminal at Landstraße Wien-Mitte U-Bahn station. The trip takes about 16 minutes; the fare is approximately €9 for a single ticket and €16 for a return ticket.

For further information, please visit City Airport Train \(CAT\).