

Nadezhda Salnikova

Deputy Project Manager, Afrikantov OKBM JSC (ROSATOM), Nizhny Novgorod, Russian Federation

Nadezhda Salnikova has been working at Afrikantov OKBM, JSC on international cooperation projects since 2011. In 2018 Nadezhda also received an advanced training certificate in nuclear energy and technical physics to broaden her technical background. Nadezhda has ensured the implementation of more than 10 foreign economic contracts and contributed to the development of user requirements and operation concept for the floating nuclear power plants of export design.

Nadezhda is responsible for complex issues related to technical and economic requirements for SMRs. She is a Certified Project Management Associate (IPMA Level D) and a Head of SMR Projects Support Department. Currently, Nadezhda is a deputy project manager for the technical design of the optimized floating power unit.

Nadezhda is also a member of the IAEA Technical Working Group on SMRs. She holds a Master's degree from the faculty of International Relations.