

Summary Session III

Through the session, we heard about challenges of regulators in embarking countries and also challenges of the donor countries or organization that support the establishment of an effective regulatory infrastructure.

There is still a lot to do in this area and the participants are invited to continue the discussion at the plenary meeting of the Regulatory Cooperation Forum to be held on 30 September 2016.